

LWVUS 2008 CONVENTION PORTLAND, OREGON – JUNE 13-17

Eleven delegates from South Carolina attended the LWVUS 2008 Convention.

Heather Kaplan (Oxfam America Senior Policy Advisor on Climate Change), Bea Bailey (LWV/Clemson Area President), and Zaida Arguedas (LWVUS Deputy Executive Director). LWV/Clemson Area and LWV/S Sumter County will use grants from LWV Education Fund to undertake programs addressing Global Climate Change.

Gladys Coles (Columbia Area), Jenny Wiedower (Charleston Area), Keller Barron (Sumter County) and Joan Kinne-Shulman (Hilton Head Island) display South Carolina sign.

Delegates representing South Carolina leagues included Eleanor Hare (SC), Barbara Zia (SC), Jenny Wiedower, Keller Barron (/Sumter County), Gladys Coles (Columbia Area), Pamela Craig (Columbia Area), Lynn Greer (Charleston Area), Joan Kinne-Shulman (Hilton Head Island), Peggy Appler (SC) and Sally McGarry (Bluffton Area). Not shown: Bea Bailey (Clemson Area).

Lynn Greer won the raffle for products of Oregon.